

Who will lead your organization into the future?

Leverage a high-impact peer network created to help emerging executives expand influence, sharpen leadership perspective, and build lasting connections across LIC member companies.

Executive-focused. Relationship-driven. Built for the next generation of industry leadership.

Introducing: the LIC Emerging Leaders Group

Why It Matters

The LIC Emerging Leaders Group gives high-potential leaders a trusted space to exchange ideas, challenge assumptions, and accelerate executive growth through peer learning and meaningful dialogue.

What Members Gain

- Networking with a select cohort of rising leaders from LIC member companies
- Mentorship and perspective from experienced LIC Board leaders
- Practical discussion on real leadership opportunities and challenges
- Expanded peer relationships across the life insurance industry

- Fresh thinking and shared solutions from trusted colleagues
- A stronger foundation for long-term executive success

Who It's For

Designed for high-potential leaders nominated by LIC member companies who are preparing for broader executive responsibility and greater organizational influence.

Ideal participants bring leadership experience, curiosity, strong judgment, and a desire to learn alongside peers facing similar opportunities and challenges.

Recommend an individual from your company for participation in the LIC Emerging Leaders Group today. Contact Dean Lambert, LIC Executive Director at dlambert@limra.com for more information.

Your emerging leader is invited to join you at the 2026 Summer CEO Forum in Quebec City, where the ELG inaugural meeting will be held, along with a special reception.